

The Violation

Fleshgod Apocalypse

Sharpening blades in dreams of terror

Your fury is what you are

Increasing lust of a living hate

Again and again in a physical pain

Her profanation's ready

The sacrifice is on its way

The resonating screams arise

Until she dies, in her own blood

She's drowning down

(You) Can't escape from your own nature

Forever's who you are!

Drain all her will to resist without any respect

The scars you've done will be impressed like a mark on her back

A desecration's coming

The eyes you've never seen are closed

The sound of her breath drifts away

Forever gone

Burn!

Forever burn

All her dreams

She feels lost and facing the insanity

We're lost in this pain

Her whisper is fading away

Destiny won't forgive

(Won't) forgive the one who lead to the unmerciful fate!

Pray all your gods to be saved

You can not liberate

Your wicked soul from the dread of a tragical fate

Our inquisition is coming to punish your life

The sound of her scream makes you mad

The sin is done

Stalking preys with frantic sadism

Your evil's satisfied

Incoming will to devastate

Again an again in a critical haze

The snow white skin is burning
Impurity for all to see
Her shattered body is on the ground
Until she dies, In her own blood
She's drowning down
(You) Can't escape from your own nature
Forever's who you are!

Forever burn
All her dreams
She feels lost and facing the insanity
We're lost in this pain
Her whisper is fading away
Destiny won't forgive
(Won't) forgive the one who lead to the unmerciful fate!

For this crime you'll be trapped in our cage
And again you'll be slave to the rage
We will impose the sentence of your death
For your demise
While you beg for a mercy denied
We'll be deaf and our purification will be blind
This violation will condemn to die
