

Jeane, If You're Ever in Portland

Casiotone for the Painfully Alone

Back in town with pull out lungs lungs
And shot ear drums, misplaced kisses
And someone who misses
Who misses me in kansasThe second I got out of the van
I saw you giving your cash to the doorman
I saw the "x" on your hand
I knew you were the one
I knew you'd understand
Oh I wish we could have talked all night
We had to be in Illinois by daylight
And what I wouldn't give to be your man
But I can't break up the band
And Jeane, there must be more than letters and phone calls
So say you'll come see Maine when the snow falls
Just say you'll come see Maine when the snow falls
You kissed me in Kansas but that's not home
And we sigh when we're on the phone
But the voice in my ear
Says it wouldn't be same if you move here
But it's just miles
So many miles
It's just miles
And miles and miles and miles and miles
