Joyous Sound

Van Morrison

How sweet that joyous sound
Whenever we meet, whenever we meet
How sweet that joyous sound
Whenever we meet again
I think you know it well
Whenever we meet, whenever we meet
I think you know it well
Whenever we meet again
Just let it in and let it out, yeah alright
And you will begin to know without a doubt
That grace will follow us
Wherever we go, wherever we go
That grace will follow us
Until we meet again, hey
Just let it in and let it out, yeah alright
And you will begin to know without a doubt
That grace will follow us

Wherever we go, wherever we go
That grace will follow us
Until we meet again
How sweet that joyous sound
Whenever we meet, whenever we meet
How sweet that joyous sound
Whenever we meet again
Oh! Whenever we meet
Whenever we meet
Whenever we meet again
Oh! Whenever we meet
Whenever we meet
Whenever we meet again
Oh! Whenever we meet
Whenever we meet
Whenever we meet again
