Awakening

SlowMotionNoise

Behind locked doors she lays hidden from the world
Her beauty lost behind the makeup rolling down her cheeks
So lost, alone she feels that no one's ever there for her
And then she finally hears the musicJust Dance!
You're gunna make it through the day
Stop your crying girl, I know you're gunna be okay
I know you miss him, but he hasn't left foreverFight back the tears, go have some fun
It's still early and the night has just begun
Dance with the world, sing your heart out
Forget your pain, dance, scream and shoutLET'S HIT THE DANCE FLOOR!Free from her cage. No longer bound by loneliness.
She takes the stage. A star inside shining so brightly.
No more fears. She'll just move on until his return.
As her teardrops stain the dance floor.Just Dance!
You're gunna make it through the day
Stop your crying girl, I know you're gunna be okay
I know you miss him, but he hasn't left foreverFight back the tears, go have some fun
It's still early and the night has just begun
Dance with the world, sing your heart out
Forget your pain, dance, scream and shoutHer tear drops stain the dance floor!
She misses him like never beforeJust Dance!
You're gunna make it through the day
Stop your crying girl, I know you're gunna be okay
I know you miss him, but he hasn't left foreverFight back the tears, go have some fun
It's still early and the night has just begun
Dance with the world, sing your heart out
Forget your pain, dance, scream and shout
