Stuck In M Town

Keeping Secrets

Leave it all behind, start a new life
Shut the window of regret and think of every possible thing
Time is moving but youâ€™re stuck hating yourself
For missing out, now itâ€™s time to move on

Unlock the door
Step into the light
Now itâ€™s time for change
Donâ€™t waste your time
Too afraid to be alone
Failure only comes to those who wonâ€™t try

Someday I know youâ€™ll be sorry

This crack in the mirror represents your face
Two sides to every storyline
Dividing every situation into black and white
Black has caused these scars, whiteâ€™ the way that love used to be

Someday I know youâ€™ll be so cold

What will it take?
Seems your fire has burned out
And thereâ€™s nothing left to ignite the frame of all you ever wanted
Still there is a reason
That God put you on this earth
Youâ€™ll find your path
Youâ€™ll outlive everything that brought you to your knees
What will it take?
