

Slings And Arrows

The Warriors

Slings and arrows, slings and arrows
Slings and arrows, slings and arrows
 No chance for a second chance
 When the arrows start to fly
 No way is an easy way
 To say goodbye
 No dream is ever lost
 If you never cease to try
 Never thought you would walk away
 From my side
 I just can't hide from
 Slings and arrows, slings and arrows
 Slings and arrows, slings and arrows
 Life is ever changing
 Nothing stays the same
 Nothing in this whole wide world
 Can turn us back again
 'Cause where we're standing now
 Is the point of no return
 Looking back on a world
 That's got to learn
 You just can't hide from
 Slings and arrows, slings and arrows
 Slings and arrows, slings and arrows
 Love is the shield
When you're standing with your back to the wall
 And if you turn around and walk away
You're never gonna lose 'cause love conquers all
 No chance for a second chance
 When the arrows start to fly
 No way is an easy way
 To say goodbye
 No dream is ever lost
 If you never cease to try
 Never thought you would walk away
 From my side
 I just can't hide from
 Slings and arrows, slings and arrows
 Slings and arrows, slings and arrows
