Fight This Generation

Pavement

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Woke up to people so tall to you
I can't so I won't stand
Up chuck break luck
Look for the splinters you might see where they come in
Go down, sweet yardley
I won't let you fall down, sweet yardley
I won't let you fall down, here, now
Ah- God damn the guts and the gore
Nobody's crying 'cause there's no one to score for
Come up sweet randy
I won't let you fall -what you got to lose?
What you got to prove?
Who you gonna screw down here? ..now
Here now ..i am.. here now..i am... here... now...Your life is about to-to come
Away from the mirror in a rainshed
Generation
Fight this generation (x 15 or so)
Stop right
