Scarred For Life

Vice Squad

The face wasn't familiar
Unlike his introduction
What should have been an act of love becomes an act of destructionShame will never heal you There's nowhere left to hide
Scarred for life, scarred for life
Wither away little victim victim of the night
Scarred for life, scarred for lifeSomething always brings it back
That unprovoked attack
A face contoured too obscene
Left you shivering and uncleanThere's always someone behind
That someone's only in your mind
Now repulsed by every touch
Someone hurt you far too muchWords so sweet leave you unmoved
No caress could ever soothe
Add on self-mutilation
To the brutal violation
