

I Don't Care

JRDN

Chorus

I don't care

Girl I don't care

I don't care what you do out there

I'll be all better by myself

Its best I should leave

I'm through hurting

Girl I don't care You can save the tears cause I won't change my mind

And you can say you're sorry but it won't work this time

I thought that we would last forever

Jokes on me should have known better

Woah. I hope he breaks your heart without a reason why

I gave you all of me and you left me to die

So I'm moving on to something better

Its my time it's now or never

Woah, no

Oh no Chorus How can you say it, "Baby please forgive me"

When I was down on one knee you turned your back on me

Now look who's all the begging

Sounds real good but to the left I'm heading

Woah. Now when you realize you really miss me remember I'm the one you said you didn't need so go back to your new found loser

I'm with her, meet my new future

Woah. 'cause she is mine
