Shallow

Sea Oleena

You, with the moon, in the mirror stiff at the sharpening stone keeping the deepening dreamer asleep in the shallowher, with the war, in the corner ripping the pillows up slow sending the feathers away with the shimmering snowand i, in the wake of an angelfish, float on my own
i, in the shape of an avalanche, quake in the cold
i, in the shadow of everyone, carry on slow
i, at the end of a line, toe it alone
he, with the hands of an answer, stands at the edge of awake
