

Matters

TwinSmith

It only matters when it's gone
I don't care, you don't mind
What an honest man I'd be
I don't care, you don't mind
Feelings this mutual bring tears
I don't care, you don't mind
You're hold back through all these years
I don't care, you don't mind For only you, I would die
Let me guard down, and make it right
We never did feel synchronized
I don't care, you don't mind
There's no such thing as late night talks
I don't care, you don't mind
The strangest thoughts fill up the room
I don't care, you don't mind
I wait a week to forgive you
I don't care, you don't mind For only you, I would die
Let my guard down, and make it right
Forget the trend, forget what's torn
Cut the ties off, and do what's right I made the same mistake
I made the same mistake
I made the same
For only you, I would die
Let my guard down, and make it right
Cut the ties off, and do what's right
