

Queen of Darkness

Tony Banks

If you want me to I will be your fairy princess
Your dream of romance
If you ask me then I can be your queen of darkness
Take you below It don't matter at all
Devil or priestess - teacher or fool
What you want will be what you receive
I am the answer to all of your dreams If you wanted a creature from another dimension
I'm the answer
If you wanted a reason for an endless conflict
I'm the one It don't matter at all
Devil or priestess - teacher or fool
What you want will be what you receive
I am the answer to all of your dreams I can be your nightmare
And then I'll take you places you didn't mean to go
Or take a long look
Into the future
I'll tell you many things that you didn't want to know If you want me to I will be your humble servant
Need your protection
If you ask me then I can be your fearless fighter
Your Joan of Arc It don't matter at all
Devil or priestess - teacher or fool
What you want will be what you receive
I am the answer to all of your dreams Build me up - bring me down
Put me back on my feet again
Please leave me alone If you want me to I will be your fairy princess
Your dream of romance
If you ask me then I can be your queen of darkness
Take you below It don't matter at all
Devil or priestess - teacher or fool
What you want will be what you receive
I am the answer to all of your dreams Build me up - bring me down
Put me back on my feet again
Please leave me - please leave me alone
