Cold Killer

Jordan Bratton

If you stole from me
I will get you back
But if you want my heart
You'll pry it from my cold heart chest

Then the phone rang again like baby wake up
Then you rose up to ask "who woke me up"
And your own premonition took control of you
Never know when its over babe
Then you look back at it like baby keep up
When you knew all along i'm warming it up
And you could've got a cab
But you hopped in the jag
Well now you know that its over babe

Well if anybody asks just tell them
I'm a cold killer
Tell them
I'm a cold killer
And if we should take this scene way to far babe
Tell them
Its a stone cold chiller, stone cold chiller

Hey, hey, hey
Begin and ending with a hey
Hey, hey, hey
Begin and ending with a hey
Hey, hey, hey
Beginning and ending with a hey
Start it over start it with a hey

I could feel your heartbeat
I could take control again
Either way i got it
Taking back my soul again
Even if the thunder and lightning come out again
I can catch this storm just to get to you, you

Then the phone rang again like baby wake up
Then you rose up to ask "who woke me up"

And your own premonition took control of you
Never know when its over babe
Then you look back at it like baby keep up
When you knew all along iâ€™m warming it up
And you couldâ€™ve got a cab
But you hopped in the jag
Well now you know that its over babe

Well if anybody asks just tell them
Iâ€™m a cold killer
Tell them
Iâ€™m a cold killer
And if we should take this scene way to far babe
Tell them
Its a stone cold chiller, stone cold chiller

Hey, hey, hey
Begin and ending with a hey
Hey, hey, hey
Begin and ending with a hey
Hey, hey, hey
Beginning and ending with a hey
Start it over start it with a hey

Now Iâ€™m falling through
The pit of you
Where ray beams stray from blue
And there's no saving you
From death drinking my thoughts away
Iâ€™m bleeding out, depleting out my veins for you

Run
Runaway i want you to
You know the deepest truth
Time is wasting I'm running out
Running out running out of time with you
Running out of time with you

Hey, yep
