

I Forgive You

Every Avenue

You, you got a way of keepin' me on my toes
And you got a way of thinkin' whatever you do goes
And I really don't mind 'cause you keepin' me amused
And you treated my love to your goddamn crazy moods
And I, I forgive you I forgive you for the truth
I liked you better when you lied
And I forgive you being you
'Cause you were better when you faked every smile Now you're knockin' on my front door
That's what I've been livin' for
Excuse me while I laugh my ass off
I forgive you for your ways
Now that I finally got away I, I'm gonna miss watchin' you while you sleep
'Cause that was the only time I ever found some peace
I use to believe it was me who was insane
But now I take it back 'cause compared to you I'm okay
And I, I forgive you I forgive you for the truth
I liked you better when you lied
And I forgive you being you
'Cause you were better when you faked every smile Now you're knockin' on my front door
That's what I've been livin' for
Excuse me while I laugh my ass off
I forgive you for your ways
Now that I finally got away from you I could throw my cares away
Now I know how freedom taste
And I thank you for the pain
'Cause now I can deal with anythin'
I foretold the break, now that i've
Finally broke away from you You, you had a way of keepin' me on my toes I forgive you for the truth
I liked you better when you lied
And I forgive you being you
'Cause you were better when you faked every smile And now you're knockin' on my front door
That's what I've been livin' for
Excuse me while I laugh my ass off
And now you're knockin' on my front door
That's what I've been livin' for
Excuse me while I laugh my ass off Now you're knockin' on my front door
That's what I've been livin' for
Excuse me while I laugh my ass off
I forgive you for your ways

Now that I finally got away
