

Wanna Love U Girl (feat. Pharrell)

Robin Thicke

She's the kinda girl you wanna marry
The kinda girl you walk the whole earth for Put her on your back and just carry
Her attitude is hotter than the earth's core
When she's around, nothing else matters
Untouchable, she's got her own forcefield
Sooner or later someone will get at her
If I don't, someone else willWanna love you, girl
Wanna love you, girl
Wanna love you, girl
Wanna love youWanna love you, girl
Wanna love you, girl
Wanna love you, girl
Wanna love youWanna love you, girl
Wanna love you, girl

Wanna love youOh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, ohShe's the kinda girl you wanna marry
Scientists say that she's the second sunshine
And now my life is sweeter than berries
I guess if we have sex, our love will turn to wine
When she's around, nothing else matters
Even if the sky was at a stand still
If I turn my back, then someone will get at her
If I don't, someone else willWanna love you, girl

Picture my life and my intention to ball
Picture this ice and how it glitter fo' y'all
Now, don't you feel claustrophobic when that chick is involved?
She change ya life and your frame of mind
Sorry, I hope what I'm saying is fine
We fuss, but we take it one day at a time
If there's a fire, you know that she'll lay in the line
I just close my eyes and curve my mouth
Open my mind and words come out

You're eclectic

You're creative

You the picture, girl, I just painted
I got it, you name it; it's all paid for
Big castle on the sea shore
With the Willy Wonka decor
