Go Easy

Memphis Slim; Willie Dixon

I watch the evening roll
And I watch the sun grow tired
Collapsing into the meadow lands
Funny how I still hear my voice
Sometimes it's like it's so loud
I only hear a ringing sound
If only to say this to you now
I love you still, and I always will
If only to say this to myself
I will always love you
I will always love you
So go easy on yourself
Go easy
Go easy
You were like those flowers on the hills
In the sunlight, in the fall
Even the coyotes call
Funny how my mind counts each day
By the times I've thought of you
Funny how the numbers sway
If only to say this to you now
I love you still, and I always will
If only to say this to myself
I will always love you
I will always love you
So go easy on yourself
Go easy
Go easy
Go easy
Go easy
You gotta go, you gotta go now
You gotta go, you gotta go now
You gotta go, you gotta go now
You gotta go, you gotta go now
You gotta go, you gotta go now
You gotta go, you gotta go now
You gotta go, you gotta go now
