Shoes Watch

An Horse

Oh my my, oh my my,
It has come to this.
Oh my my, oh my my,
It has come to this.
Well it's such a small town and what comes always goes around.
And there's crows in the tree and they're singing for me,
There's crows in the tree and they're singing for me.Oh my luck, oh my luck,
It has come to this
Oh my luck, oh my luck,
It has come to this.
There's skeletons around and they dance when the sun goes down
On roof tops where shoes just watch,
On roof tops where shoes just watch.Come on and dance for me
Come on and dance for me
The crows sing so sweetly
The crows sing so sweetlyOh my love, oh my love,
It has come to this.
Oh my love, oh my love,
It has come to this.
Well each bird song in the dusk before the dawn,
It made me strong when I was far from,
It made me strong when I was far from.Come on and dance for me,
Come on and dance for me.
The crows sing so sweetly.
The crows sing so sweetly.Dance for me.
Come and dance for me.
The crows sing so sweetly
In the place where you used to be.Dance for me.
Dance for me.
Come on and dance for me.
(Place where you used to be.)
Come on and dance for me.
(Place where you used to be.)Dance for me.
Dance for me.
Come on and dance for me.
(Place where you used to be.)
Come on and dance for me.
(Place where you used to be.)Dance for me.
Dance for me.

Come on and dance for me.
(Place where you used to be.)
Come on and dance for me.
(Place where you used to be.)
