Carry My Cross

Third Day

As long as I remember
I've been walking through the wilderness
Praying to the father
And waiting for my time
I've come here with a mission
And soon I'll give my life for this worldI'm praying in the garden
And I'm looking for a miracle
I find the journey hard but
It's the reason I was born
And can this cup be passed on?
Lord, I pray Your will be done
In this worldSo I'll carry my cross
And I'll carry the shame
To the end of the road
Through the struggle and pain
And I'll do it for love
No, it won't be in vain
Yes, I'll carry my cross
And I'll carry the shameI feel like I'm alone here
And I'm treated like a criminal
The time has come for me now
Even though I've done no wrong
Father, please forgive them
They know not what they've done
In this worldSo I'll carry my cross
And I'll carry the shame
To the end of the road
Through the struggle and pain
And I'll do it for love
No, it won't be in vain
Yes, I'll carry my cross
And I'll carry the shameThree more days and I'll be coming back again
Three more days and I'll be coming back againYeah, so I'll carry my cross
And I'll carry the shame
To the end of the road
Through the struggle and pain
And I'll do it for love
No, it won't be in vain
Yes, I'll carry my cross

And I'll carry the shameYeah, I'll carry my cross
Yeah, I'll carry the shame
Oh, I will do it for love, yeah
Oh, I will carry my cross
I'll carry the shame
