Darling Lorraine

Paul Simon

The first time I saw her I couldn't be sure But the sin of impatience Said, "She's just what you're looking for"So I walked right up to her And with the part of me that talks I introduce myself as Frank From New York, New YorkShe's so hot and she's so cool I'm not, I'm just a fool in love With darling LorraineAll my life I've been A wanderer, not really I mostly lived near my parents homeAnyway, Lorraine and I got married And the usual married stuff And then one day she says to me From out of the blue She says, "Frank, I've had enough"Romance is a heart breaker I'm not meant to be a homemaker And I'm tired of being, darling LorraineWhat, you don't love me anymore? What, you're walkin' out the door? What, you don't like the way I chew? Hey, let me tell youYou're not the woman that I wed You say you're depressed but you're not You just like to stay in bedI don't need you, darling Lorraine Darling Lorraine Lorraine, I long for your loveFinancially speaking, I guess I'm a washout Everybody's buy and sell and sell and buy And that's what the whole thing's all about If it had not been for Lorraine I'd have left here long ago I should have been a musician I love the pianoShe's so light, she's so free I'm tight, well, that's me But I feel so good with darling LorraineOn Christmas morning, Frank awakes To find Lorraine has made a stack of pancakes They watch the television, husband and wife All afternoon, it's a wonderful lifeWhat, you don't love me anymore? What, you're walkin' out the door? What, you don't like the way I chew? Hey, let me tell youYou're not the woman that I wed Give my robe, I'm going back to bed I'm sick to death of you, LorraineDarling Lorraine, Lorraine

Her hands like wood The doctor was smiling But the news wasn't goodDarling Lorraine Please don't leave me yet I know you're in pain Pain you can't forgetYour breathing is Like an echo of our love Maybe I'll go down to the corner store And buy us something sweetHere's an extra blanket, honey To wrap around your feet All the trees were washed with April rain And the moon in the meadow Took darling Lorraine
