No Questions

Ugly Friend

You're rude and out of line
Like the way I found you drunk last night
When the morning came
You kept my toilet company

Slash cold water on my face
Making sure that I'm awake
Then you disappear in the the day

She said thanks so long
No Questions roll off her tongue
That's how I want it to be
Never wanted anyone with me

It's 1am I'm here all alone
The phone rings I say hello
No one answers then a dial tone

I turn on the morning news to see
A story of a late night tragedy
Remembering what she said to me

She said thanks so long
No Questions roll off her tongue
That's how I want it to be
Never wanted anyone with me
