Magic Mirror

Yngwie Malmsteen

Everyone is searching for the meaning of our life
Reading 'bout the hell and heaven, believing all those lies
Look upon yourself, imagine you are two
Power lies within, this is trueCan't you see? It's clear like a mirror
Magic mirror, magic mirror, magic mirrorMagic mirror, magic mirror, magic mirrorNow your eyes are open and you know you were a fool
You always had the power, but you never broke the rules
Look upon yourself, imagine you are two
Power lies within, this is trueCan't you see its clear like a mirror
It's all within, what you're searching forMagic mirror, magic mirror, magic mirror
Magic mirror, magic mirror, magic mirrorOnce again I say, the strength that we are all searching for High and low, we looked all in vain
Can't you see? It's clear like a mirror
It's all within, what you're searching forMagic mirror, magic mirror, magic mirror
Magic mirror, magic mirror, magic mirror
