Waves

The Twilight Singers

Muddy water, broken glass
I can feel you from the inside now
Born a liar, obfuscate
Step aside while I manipulateSuspended from the rails
Hot on your toxic trailSee the master, heel the slave
This extraordinary shadow state
You and I could go anywhere
Cut your losses and I'll meet you thereSuspended from the nail
Shattered beyond the paleSay what you wanna say
I can feel your game
Say what you want to
Say what you got to say till I feel itWhat you foresee is what you'll get
What you foresee is what you'll getSuspended from the nail
[Incomprehensible]Say what you wanna say
I can feel your game
Say what you want to
Say what you got to say
Till I feel it coming around of me
I feel it, I feel it
