

Return of the Vampire

Mercyful Fate

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

A suicide, the birth of a Vampire
Deep in his lair, gasping for airSpreaded wings
Fly out at sunset
So high above, back before dawnReturn of the Vampire
Leaving his lair
He's out for blood and it's yours he will share
Return of the Vampire
Leaving his lair
He's out for blood and it's yours he will shareThere's only one way you can stop him
You gotta trace the Vampire to his lair, oh yeah
And then you gotta drive a stake
Right through the heart of the living dead, the deadOh I can feel something is wrongVampire, My shadow is gone
Vampire, I know what you've done
Vampire, My shadow is gone
Vampire, I know what you've doneReturn of the Vampire
Leaving his lair
He's out for blood and it's yours he will share
Return of the Vampire
Leaving his lair
He's out for blood and it's yours he will shareA suicide, the birth of a Vampire
