forever//over

EDEN

Life is just going so quickly, I can't catch it
I don't think anyone canI met the devil in the hills last night
I was driving by myself, alone
He said, "Boy, what you running from?"
I said, I don't knowI don't know if it was a better time
But girl, we were giants then
And those nights, we were infinite (so, kinda fight it, I guess)
Summer's end would mean the death of usBut summer passed, and we grew up
And all of our plans, they split up
And I haven't seen your face or heard your voice in so long
So, so long, we had a good run, it's over now
(I'm not sad about it, I'm just, it's weird)Yeah, lying on the grass, talking so old
Living under Orion, we were so bold
Lying on our days, we were outlaws
Outlaws, but, catch me if you can, never wiped out
Tryin' to catch a wave, tryin' to break out
I guess I didn't knowAnd now I'm gone, but it don't hurt me anymore
That's just the way it goes, yeah, I should've known
But, heard you talking to the walls late last night
There are no ends, just grays and half-lives
Halftime (and I heard you), it's alright (and I heard you)And summer passed, and we grew up
And all of our plans, they split us up
And I haven't seen your face or heard your voice in so long
So, so long, we had a good run, it's over now
So, please, don't break me down
So, please, don't break me down
So, please, don't break me down
And all the words that you never said
Smokescreen from a cigarette
Exhale, we could never breathe until this Elevation, doesn't matter, now it's straight ahead
Sending shivers down my spine, yeah, I feel the waste
It's cool, we're used to losing real friends
All you're ever feeling now, is retrospect
We weren't really breathing until this
Maybe in another dream, this would never end'Cause everything is not alright, and we are fallen
But that's just life, without some lows there is no highs
And everything will be okay, though we are all hurting
'Cause time flies fast and you know, no pain is forever, ever, foreverI don't think, I'm not saying you should

Be really cautious and shit, I'm, quite the opposite, just like it's Everything is so, I mean
Expecting anything to last forever is ridiculous, I think
I think that's ridiculous
You think that's ridiculous?
Yeah, of course everything lasts forever
