You Give Me Life

Jason Morant

It wasnt so not long ago when
When I was too weak to move on
A broken heart my hope was goneAnd I looked up into Your eyes
I was overwhelmed with love
You took me up into Your arms
And now I see Your wonderYou give me life
And now I give it back to You
'Cause everything Youve done for me
It is the least that I could doSince that day You took my hand in Yours
We danced the night away
And no Ill never be the sameWhat Youve done inside of me
I want everyone to see
That You are now my everythingYou give me life
And now I give it back to You
'Cause everything Youve done for me
It is the least that I could doYou fill my heart
With the love Ill show the world
With everything Youve given me
And I could never give enough
Yeah I could never give enoughAnd now I see Your wonderYou give me life
And now I give it back to You
With everything Youve done for me
It is the least that I could doYou give me life
And now I give it back to You
'Cause everything Youve done for me
It is the least that I could doYou fill my heart
With the love Ill show the world
With everything Youve given me
And I could never give enough
Yeah I could never give enough
