World On Fire (feat. Myles Kennedy)

Slash

Well, they say that we are tragic
And they say we're born to lose
You're the misfit, I'm the sinner
You're the Eve and I'm the fool
But, today, you'll be the master or the slave
It's up to you
Or my beautiful disaster
Take me any way you chooseDon't fight it
Ignite it
There's much ashoreI think it's time you set this world on fire (this world on fire)
I think it's time you push it to the edge (to the edge)
Burn it to the ground and trip the wire (just trip the wire)
It may never be this good again, ohIt's like a new religion
Speak in tongues, come see the light
Do not trip from inhibitions that will only waste my time
Let me tempt you with the evils of the flesh and so much more
Like a Babylon redeemer
Like a pusher, like a whoreJust try it
You'll like it
I'll give you moreI think it's time you set this world on fire (this world on fire)
I think it's time you push it to the edge (to the edge)
Burn it to the ground and trip the wire (just trip the wire)
It may never be this good again, ohIt's so dark, I can't see
All the truth inside us
All I want is to feel something that's real before the endClose the door
Turn the key
Do you like
What you see?
Kill the lights
Oh, come to me
Set it off tonight
Baby, just set fire to gasolineI think it's time you set this world on fire (this world on fire)
I think it's time you push it to the edge (to the edge)
I'm so fuckin' bored, so trip the wire (just trip the wire)
It may never be this good againJust trip the wire (just trip the wire)
This world's on fire (this world's on fire)
Just trip the wire (just trip the wire)It may never be this good again
