

Lonely Nights

Clair Marlo

letting go is always so much harder when your love is strong so it goes, i always think about you as the night goes on part of me starts saying i'm crazy to have loved you some of these memories will never go away oh baby i'm trying not to want you but it's hard when i have to face these changes lone-lonely nights

lying on my bed, trying to remember why i wanted it this way i know i had to go but oh these lonely nights ohhh here i go calling up the shadows like a fool again so it goes, but part of me will love you til the very end but my baby it wasn't always good times when it got dirty we really got it down ooh baby i know we had to lose it

lying on my bed, trying to remember
i know i had to go
but oh these lonely nights it isn't fair to you or me it isn't fair to love oh no why does it have to hurt so bad i try to keep busy, move on to new things find someone else to love but not the changes oh no oh these ... lonely nights

lying on my bed, trying to remember
i know i had to go
but oh it gets so lonely lonely lonely nights trying to remember

i know i had to go
but oh these lonely nights ohhh these lonely nights
