

Autumn Leaves

Echo Orbiter

    Closer to the bottom
    Interrupted blind freefall
        Dictated by wind
    Destination left a secret
        Like when you and I
    Shared that wind and stole the evening
        The moonlight purged our forms
        And we left a single shadow

    Her eyes never reply
    Let loose her grasp now
    Descend to the grass now
    The place you shall not be
    Lover you shall not know
    I shall suffer for her kiss
    And know that it's the last
        One was bound to fall
    To lie and die somewhere down there
