

Most of My Life (Demo)

Robin Gibb

Most of my life, I've had to run away
Life was a game and I just had to play
The friends that I thought I had were never there
You look for love, but you don't know where
And I'm in a race that could be any place
And when I was born, my life had slowly worn
The woman that I loved had slowly walked away
I tried to smile but that was yesterday
And most of my life, I've had to run away
Life was a game and I just had to play
The friends that I thought I had were never there
You look for love, but you don't know where And most of my life
