

Inside

Endanger

Wise men say "all's fair in love and war"
they've never seen the eyes of death before
We move and breathe we live and love eternally Ref.:
Inside I feel my heartbeat dying
it's time to face the end (tonight my kingdom comes) erase me, erase me Wise men say "all's fair in love and war" they've never looked into these eyes before and they stare C-Part:
they say "all's fair in love and war"
they've never looked into these eyes before
We move and breathe we live and love eternally
