Boys With Girlfriends

Meiko

When I first met you I knew you were the one
Till you took me home and I met her
She had your boxers on
And she was listening to your song
And I thought right then that you had everything
But I knew
She was jealous from the start
Yeah, I knew
She was jealous from the start
'Cause I know better not to be friends with boys with girlfriends
Oh I know better than that, I know better
You play the victim and I'll be the bad guy
I know better than that, I know better
(oh oh oh oh oh oh X 2)
We started hanging around after 9
I could've sworn that I was yours
You looked at me and said
Its a little too late for bed
We went to hotel and
Talked about everything
But I knew
She was jealous from the start

Yeah, I knew
She was jealous from the start
'Cause I know better not to be friends with boys with girlfriends
Oh I know better than that, I know better
You play the victim and I'll be the bad guy
I know better than that, I know better
(oh)
'Cause what she did to us was tragic
Oh oh oh
And I had to do what's right
Oh oh oh
What we had was really magic
Oh oh oh
But I have to get what's mine
What's mine
I'll get what's mine

And you'll get yours
'Cause I know better not to be friends with boys with girlfriends
Oh I know better than that, I know better
You play the victim and I'll be the bad guy
I know better than that, I know better
(oh)
X 2
