Jenny

Lauren Sanderson

See, Jenny life ain't always good,
but life ain't always bad.
but lookin at your message girl it makes me so sad cause i feel for ya,
trust me girl, i really feel for ya.

girl, i been there.
i understand the way it works.
& jenny, as i read it i could tell you're really hurt babygirl, i feel for ya.

i'd say i read it 20 times before respondin.
has anybody told you your existence wasn't wanted?
that people only use you? not just one body but hundreds?
thought maybe jenny's right cause these scenarios i've wondered.

& everything you said to me i felt it in my chest.
jenny, tell me bout your goal? was it to make me feel depressed?
i worry bout my fans n if they're really not impressed, i try so damn hard jenny, swear i try my best.

she said i'm not feelin ya bitch, i'm only bein real with ya.
she said lauren I'm not feelin ya bitch, i only kept it real w ya.

i read it once more, that's when sadness turned to anger.
how could somebody say that to a motherfuckin stranger?
you know what girl you're right, jenny, i'll do you a favor.
i'll quit the fuckin shows n I'll start workin on my major.

i'm typin real mean so jenny knew who she was dealin with.
said it just right so i'd know she know the feelin n told her she was starving for attention, girl, you're FIENIN it.
jenny, you're pathetic. when i say it then i mean the shit.

i don't even feel for ya
jenny I'm just bein real with ya told her I don't even feel for ya homegirl, I'm just bein real with ya.

& jenny, I don't give a damn, you really had the nerve.
& jenny, as you read it girl i hope you really hurt.
said i don't even feel for ya,
jenny i'm just bein real with ya.

i read it once more just to make sure it was perfect, but reading my response, it started makin me so nervous.
if jenny's on the edge, then could really cut the circuit?
if jennys insecure this could really close her curtain?

that's when i sat back
& it all just came to me
jenny had this pain, n she just aimed at me, needed this attention, it was plain to see she was hurtin, put her pain on me it's not my fault but she was blamin me.

i know it wasn't me that was the problem,
n everything she said to me was coming from the bottom, of all of jenny's wounds, she was helpless tryna solve em.
what jenny doesn't realize is this'll just evolve them.

said i'm feelin ya
trust me girl i'm fuckin feelin ya
i been there n girl i fear for ya, i'm really sorry hope you heal n yeaaa (so keep it going, it gets better) not one now, but 2 people hurtin.

deleted all my words cause I'm not that typa person.
i told her bout my vision n success said girl i earn this,
i'm livin out my dream, it's meant to be n yo i'm certain.

i've been there, i get your mind is in the darkness but girl I gotta go i got these fans i made a promise won't stop for anybody cause the future is beyond us, that's when i pressed send n jenny seemed so damn astonished.

damn. i didn't think you'd be so kind.
I honestly don't know you so please don't pay no mind.
continue livin big, trust me girl you really shine... deservant of your future so just leave the doubts behind.

so next time you run into a jenny, remember she's just broken n there's two sides to a penny.

so fill her up with love, these people need it they're so empty the hurtin hurt the hurt, i know their words can be so heavy.

yeaaaaaaah
