

Money Won't Change You

Aretha Franklin

Told me, darling, that you had to go
Find somebody, I don't care no more, baby
I know you're happy, you better try to get along (Get along without me)'Cause money won't change you
I said money won't change you (yeah)
No money won't change you
But time is taking you on (come on, yeah, yeah)There were times when I'd been hurt (hurt)
I sure know what it is to be treated just like dirt
Go ahead, baby, and tell the world
Tell 'em I'm your sweetie, I'm your only girlMoney won't change you (no, no)
I said, money won't change you
But time is taking you on
Time, yes it is
Time, ohI'm a little happy now that you're gone
(Get along without me)But money won't change you
I said money won't change you (yeah)
Oh money won't change you no, no
(Can you do it without me)
Money won't change you (yeah)
I tell you, money won't change you
But time will take you onOh people I feel the blues
I told myself that I knew that I would oh
MoneyGet it, get it, get it, get it
Get it, get it, get it, get down
Money won't change you
Get it, get it, get it, get down with
Get it, get it, get it,
Money won't change you
Get it, get it, get it, get down with
Get it, get it, get down with it baby
Get it, get it, get it,
Money won't change you (oh no)
Get it, get it, get it, get down with

Songwriters

JAMES BROWN, NAT JONESPublished by

Lyrics Â© Warner/Chappell Music, Inc. Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnyrics.com/>