

She's a Girl

The Amps

Did she tried to play a little hard to get
Well just a little hint, oh don't give up just yet
What made you think that love was gonna be so easy
Well she's a girl ain't she

Does she get to you, like no one else
Could she make your life heaven or a livin hell
Did you think beautiful would drive you so crazy
Oh she's a girl ain't she
Is she on your mind
Every other thought

Is there nothing you wouldn't do for her just because
Does she hold your heart
In her hands
Did she walk into your life
And change your plans
Did she want a ring, did you tell her no

Or is it on her finger now, yea I thought so
Does she always get whatever she thinks she needs
Well she's a girl ain't she
Is she on your mind
Every other thought

Is there nothing you wouldn't do for her just because
Does she hold your heart
In her hands
Did she walk into you life
And change your plans

Does she have her momma's big bright eyes
Did you ever think something so small could change your life
She can melt your heart with a just a smile can't she
She's always gonna be her daddy's little baby
She's a girl ain't she
She's your girl, She's your girl
