

Cellophane

Creeper Lagoon

Some days you feel grand
And there's games to play
Enter a flame you cannot explain
She is divine you say I am grand and you are mine
Will you dine today?
And she caught my heart with a gentle stare
Soothing me in every way While she's slowly slipping away
Calm down, it's okay
She's too fine for you
Go away, she's got things to do And has no time for you
And she broke my heart with a gentle stare
Losing her faster than a sound
'Cause she knows, no one lives in the ground Ooh, don't you walk away
You're amazing and I'd be
Ooh, if you didn't stay
Can you blame me?
I'm just a fool from another day And I'm lonely, so won't you be brave?
Feeling stoned in a funny way
I guess it's time to go
Heading north where the days are cold And the time is slow
I would live alone in my house of stone
Staring out at the sea
Wondering what is wrong with me Ooh, don't you walk away, you're amazing and I'd be
Ooh, if you didn't stay
Can you blame me?
I'm just a fool from another day And I'm lonely, so won't you be brave?
Lights out and I cannot sleep
I guess it rained today
A blue rose, I cannot keep Has found a way
To make me change all the things I wear
Fading slowly with time
Is the thought that someday, she would be mine Ooh, don't you walk away
You're amazing and I'd be blue if you didn't stay
Can you blame me?
I'm just a fool from another day And I'm lonely, so won't you be brave?

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>