Intro...Unleashed (Upon Mankind)

Bolt Thrower

You watch in terror, in fear of your life
Their execration revealed, only your death will suffice
You cannot conceal, this reality from your mind
As unknown powers, are unleashed upon mankindUnleashed upon mankindRunning - in search of safety
No escape - from [the] deadly wrath
Screaming - you beg for mercy
Silenced - by the searing blastYou are forced to believe, this is for real Mind frozen with horror, as your body trembles in fear
No prayers for deliverance, your gods you now forsake
Summon courage from within, face your unperceived fateUnleashed upon mankindAwaiting - with expectation
Impending - life's annihilation
Annihilation [sings something else here]
Mass genocide - the resolution
Now verified - out terminationNow the stench of death, abides throughout the world
As infesting plagues, cause agonies untoldUnleashed upon mankindYou are the final victim, no one else has survived
Alone you now suffer, eagerly waiting to dieThe ending draws nearer, our extinction is justly deserved
Through thoughtless intentions, this holocaust incurred
The closing chapter finished, now face the torment and pain
Through death it becomes clearer, mankind alone is to blameUnleashed upon mankind [doesn't sing this]
