

Break Ground

Blue October

Pain comes lonely
Weakened shoulder
Been here before
Locked up Stepped on
So prominent So loud
I can't ignore
Only in my mind
So wide eyed other side
I can't be belong
Rain comes priceless
Do whatever works best
Been here before

If I could be good enough
Then I would be blown away
Then I could be their everyone
Then I could be there everyday
If I could be good enough
Then I could just glow
If I can let go
Then I can change the world

But I can't stop always tearing myself down
I can be good enough
Yeah I will break ground

I focus on dawn then
Cause somethin doesn't feel right
The feeling in my bones
Like God is throwing stones
Yeah I'm gonna find the light
With the weight of what your going through
Is bigger than your will to change
You have to start somewhere
Despair won't wear well ever again

If I could be good enough
Then I would be blown away
Then I could be their everyone
Then I could be their everyday

If I could be good enough
Then I could just glow
If I can let go
Then I can change the world

But I can't stop always tearing myself down
I can be good enough
Yeah I will break ground

Proud...calm...love...strong...heart...soul
I...let...go
If I can let go
Then I can change the world

But I can't stop always tearing myself down
I can be good enough
Yeah I will break ground

But I can't stop always tearing myself down
I can be good enough
Yeah I will break ground

Yeah I will break ground

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnllyrics.com/>