Just Believe

Young Sam

Here you go again ready to give up, Feeling so pressure again. enough is enough,
believe me or not you're not alone Evryone's hope is running thin but it's never as bad as it seems

Chorus:
Just believe, things can do get better,
just believe, your spirit can sow higher,
just believe, tomorrow can shine brighter,
all you got to do is just believe

Every now and then, nothing turns out right, you will feel so unlove as you cry through the night
Believe me or not, you're not alone

but it's ever as bad as it seems.

(rep chorus)

Sad moments so bad to make us appreciate the happy times, we aslways seem to take for granted Always taken for granted oh oh oh oh

Just believe, things can do get better,
just believe, your spirit can sow higher,
just believe, tomorrow can shine brighter,

No need to feel down, turn face around,
all you got to do is just believe
no need to feel down you can turn face around, you can do it if you just believe
just believe
