Domination

Symphony X

All alone in a wasted war
Legions of lost scream in pain
A million shattered destinies
All slowly drowning in tears of flameBreak the chains around your necks
Lick your wounds, you dogs of war
Raise your badness ever high
And ravage the Babylon hordeI with darkest insurrection victimize
Hail the horrors, on hell we sanctify
My domination
(My domination)Rotting from the inside out
Ripping away at the core
A million lives unite as one
Smothering innocence forevermoreSounded by the drums of doom
March to this black heart of hate
Clawing, tearing, slashing
Did the fire defining our fateI with darkest insurrection victimize
Hail the horrors, on hell we sanctify
My domination, yeah
(My domination)Get down on your kneesOh, go and turn the waters red with rage
Burn all the Earth shore to shore
Open wide the gates of hell
Defile the Babylon hordeOh, I with darkest insurrection victimize
Hail the horrors, on hell we sanctify
My domination
(My domination)
My domination, yeah, yeah, oh
