

Everything Rewinds Me

Jen Foster

You left a note on my bed
You left your voice in my head
You left the lights turned on
You left a key in the door
You left my heart on the floor
You left the song unsung
And I'm stuck here in the past
And you're not coming back
Everything reminds me
Everything defines me
Everything rewinds me back
To you, you, you
You left your shoes in my heart
You left your face on the wall
You left your ring in my couch
You left a cloud in the sky
You left me wondering why
You left goodbye in my mouth
And I'm stuck here all alone
And you're not coming home
Everything reminds me
Everything defines me
Everything rewinds me back
To you, you, you, you, you, you
You left your brush in the sink
You left some ice in your drink
You left your book by the chair
You left your smile in my eyes
You left me sleepless tonight
You left you everywhere
Everything reminds me
Everything defines me
Everything rewinds me back
To you, you
Everything reminds me
Everything confines me
Everything rewinds me back
To you, you, you, you,
you, you, you, you, you
