You're a Movie

Alice Cooper

I fearlessly walk into battle
With a shine on my boots and my teeth
Never flinch, never blink, never rattle
My blood is like ice underneathOh, I'm the reincarnation of patten
And I've got Hannibal's heart in my chest
God told me I would have rivaled
Alexander the great at his best(You're a movie)
Quite
(You're a movie)
Yes
(The exception)
That's right
(You're the final kind)(You're a movie)
More than ethically
(Please include me, send us to the line)
That's right
Very goodBullets repel off my medals
And my men are in awe when I speak
All chaos my strategies settles
My mere presence gives strength to the weakFor me it seems really alarming
I'm really just only a man
With five million sheep in this army
I seem to be the only one fit to command(You're a movie)
I'm quite aware
(You're a movie)
Yes
(The exception)
Oh, you've noticed
(You're the final kind)(You're a movie)
Hey, [Incomprehensible]
(Please include me, send us to the line)
If you're lucky
I must go now and save the world
Move aside mere drop of water, let the ocean pass(You're a movie)
Quite right
(You're a movie, the exception
You're the final kind)You're a movie
Please include me
Please include me

Please include mePossibly
(Send us to the lines)
Good man
(Send us to the lines)I'll be at the front, please
(Front of the lines)
Oh, alright
Follow meAnother day, another victory
Another gold stripe, another star
Really quite boring sometimes
I wish they'd send someone equal to my strategiesWhat a guy
I'm really quite a guyMovie, movie, movie, movie, movie
Movie, movie, movie, movie
Movie, movie, movie, movie, movie
Movie, movie, movie, movieMovie, movie, movie, movie, movie
Movie, movie, movie, movie
Movie, movie, movie, movie, movie
