

The Day That Heaven Had Gone Away

Black Label Society

This road without end
So far away
Unfaithful skies
Above a faithless day
This handful of gold
I shall bury alongside my fears
All the sounds I once heard
All I wished to hear There'll be no long goodbyes
There'll be no more tears to cry The day that heaven had gone away
The day that heaven had gone away
Gone away
This hole that has been left
Never to be filled
Gather what's left
As time stands still
Pictures may tarnish
For the warmth shall never fade
Beyond all time
Carried and saved There'll be no long goodbyes
There'll be no more tears to cry The day that heaven had gone away
The day that heaven had gone away
Gone away There'll be no more long goodbyes
There'll be no more tears to cry
The day that heaven had gone away
The day that heaven had gone away
The day that heaven had gone away
The day that heaven had gone away
Gone away
