After Forever

The Brand New Heavies

Here we are, it's the perfect time
I'll do anything that'll ease your mind let's start with this
I should've told you twice a day
That I'm crazy about your sexy ways so here it is, here it is now babyAfter forever
That's when my heart won't find it's way to you, oh no, woah
After forever
That's when my night won't turn to day with you, oh, babyAnd the stars won't shine and the moon won't glow
And the birds won't sing and the wind won't blow
That's when I'll be gone, that'll be the day
'Cause I'm down with you and I'm here to stay, babyTell me how did you ever doubt
That it's you I just can't live without, must I explain?
I can't go more than an hour, you know
Without hearing your voice on the telephone
Say my name, baby you're to blameAfter forever
I won't be waiting here when you get home, oh no, woah
After forever
That's when I'll leave you, girl, to be alone, oh babyAnd the stars won't shine and the moon won't glow
And the birds won't sing and the wind won't blow
That's when I'll be gone, that'll be the day
'Cause I'm down with you and I'm here to stay, babyAfter forever
That's when my heart won't find it's way to you, oh no, woah
After forever
That's when my night won't turn to day with you, oh babyAfter forever
I won't be waiting here when you get home, oh no, woah
After forever
That's when I'll leave you girl, to be alone, oh babyThe starts won't shine and the moon won't glow
When the birds won't sing and the wind won't blow
That's when I'll be gone, that'll be the day
'Cause I'm down with you and I'm here to stay, babyAnd the stars won't shine and the moon won't glow
And the birds won't sing and the wind won't blow
That's when I'll be gone, that'll be the day
'Cause I'm down with you and I'm here to stay
Hear to stay baby now
