

Simple Man's Dream

Alannah Myles

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Captured by a renaissance dream
Tongue tied and twisted in the deep
Haunted by a renegade parading in my sleep
Stalked like a criminal in the open keep I ain't never been arrested for walking in my sleep
J-Walkin' in the heavens, pay the fine for what you reap
And what you reap It's alright, baby, it's okay, honey
It ain't nothing, nothing but a simple man's dream
It's alright, baby, it's alright, honey
Fashion your religion to a simple man's dream, yeah
Simple man's dream Sweet taste of victory in a Hitler's stance
Crime pays if it's with the Devil you dance
Grim Reaper, Soul raper, Heartbreaker, my friend
This is an enemy invasion, thank God I'm alive to see the end A simple man's dream It's alright, baby, it's alright, darling
It ain't nothing, nothing but a simple man's dream
It's alright, baby, it's alright, honey
It ain't nothing, nothing but a simple man's dream It's alright, baby, it's alright, darling
It ain't nothing, nothing but a simple man's dream
It's alright, baby, it's alright, honey
Fashion your religion to a simple man's dream It's alright, baby, it's okay, honey
It ain't nothing, nothing but a simple man's dream
It's okay, baby, it's alright, honey
Fashion your religion to a simple man's dream It's alright, baby, it's okay, honey
Fashion your religion to a simple man's dream, yeah
It's alright, baby, it's alright, darling
It ain't nothing, nothing but a simple man's dream It's alright, baby, it's alright, honey
It ain't nothing, nothing but a simple man's dream
It's alright, baby
