

Light Me Up

Ingrid Michaelson

Well youâ€™re not what I was looking for
But your arms were open at my door
And you taught me what a life is for
To see that ordinary, isnâ€™t

Light me up again
Light me up again

And I want to keep us all alive
And I want to see you with my eyes
But I see you in the fireflies
And how extraordinary is that

Light me up again
Light me up again

And you donâ€™t hold back
So I wonâ€™t hold back
And you donâ€™t look back
So I wonâ€™t look back

Light me up again
Light me up again

We are, we are, we are tonight
We are, we are, we are forever
We are, we are, we are tonight
We are, we are, we are forever

We are, we are, we are tonight
We are, we are, we are forever
We are, we are, we are tonight
We are, we are, we are forever

And you donâ€™t hold back
So I wonâ€™t hold back
And you donâ€™t look back
So I wonâ€™t look back

Light me up again

Light me up again

And you donâ€™t hold back

So I wonâ€™t hold back

And you donâ€™t look back

So I wonâ€™t look back

Light me up again

Light me up again

Light me up again

Light me up again

We are, we are, we are tonight

We are, we are, we are forever

We are, we are, we are tonight

We are, we are, we are forever
