Blue Hotel (Live In Manchester)

Ryan Adams

I'd like to say that I tried
It fits in with all the suggestions and lies
And empty tables
With food untouched
I couldn't see the future
I liked the past too much
And I've been going from door to door
Like I've got something to sell
Wandering like a fool
Through the halls of a blue hotel[Chorus]
So go on and rain down on us
Go on and rain
Go on and rain down on us
I give up oh I give upWell there's something about her that's cold
Blowing through the trees leaving me raw
The words come out
And they get confused
I get shadowed like a light bulb
On an October moon
And she's inside me like a secret
And I've got no one to tell
Wandering like a fool, through the halls of a blue hotel[Chorus]
