Where Is the Love

SWV

Where is the love
(Where)
That you promised me
(That you promised me)Or are those days and the nights
That we spent, just a fantasy?
(Just a fantasy)Where is the love
(Where is the love)
That you said we would share
(That you said we would share)Why did I wake up this morning
To find that you were not there?You picked a fine time to tell me that you did not love me
(You did not love me, baby)
And after all this time I thought that you were only thinkin' of me
Sometimes I feel like I could sit right down and just cry
But all that I can do tonight is wonder as I ask myself, why(Where is the love)
Where is the love, hey, hey, hey, hey
