

Should Have Listened

Trash Candy

Iâ€¦ I'm going nowhereâ€¦
I'm going nowhere, the time will pass me by.
And silence,
silence is goldenâ€¦
silence is golden, oh what have I become.
I should have listen,
I should have done what I was told when growing up and those, those who ignored me
had it worse than I, and I had it bad enough.

Wash away, wash away
all the oceans,
all the waters flowing by.
Wash away, Wash away.

I, I'm not gonna stay there,
I'm not gonna stay and watch how life is passing by.
Drowning, I am not drowning,
I can hold my breath much longer than I thought.
And I'm not gonna listen,
I don't wanna hear a word, unless it's from my heart.
And those, those who ignored me,
suddenly know my name and think that that's enough.

Wash away, wash away
all the oceans,
all the waters flowing by.
Wash away, Wash away.

The oceans, oceansâ€¦

Wash away, wash away
all the oceans,
all the waters flowing by.
Wash away, Wash away.
