Alison

together PANGEA

It's time to sit and write it down
So all the world can know about
Someone that cam before you
It started back when I was young
That girl showed me just what was up
And that was half a life ago
Don't get me started on those eyes
But it happened last Friday nightTalking about all this time that passed us by
No I don't wanna wait around no more
And I hope she decides that now is right
I wanna hear her knock on down my door
She's always cooler than the guys
The other girls the dropped like flies
She's a shotgun the brightest in the sky
I know too well timing ain't right
It never is but just last night I kissed her
And held her tight, and now I can die
If it took this long, no it can't be wrong, am I right?Talking about all this time that passed us by
No I don't wanna wait around no more
And I hope she decides that now is right
I wanna hear her knock on down my door
Talking about all this time that passed us by
No I don't wanna wait around no more
And I hope she decides that now is right
Oh Alison come knock on down my door
