

This Day

Kimmy Gibbler

Yesterday the sky was bright and clear
I could see the sun and I could hear the song
    Faith flowed like a river free and deep
    And grace was not so hard to be believed
        But that was yesterday
        And what was close enough to touch
            Now seems a world away
            So what about this day
        This day all His mercies are new
        This day every promise is true
        Father, help me to believe
        Give me faith I need to know You
        And trust You this day, this day
    Who knows what tomorrow's light will bring
    Tears to cry or maybe songs to sing out loud
        But only God can see that far away
        And he made us for living day by day
        'Cause he wants us to see
    That the God that He's been everyday of history
        Is who He is this day
        This day all His mercies are new
        This day every promise is true
        Father, help me to believe
        Give me faith I need to know You

    And trust You
    'Cause You are the same yesterday and today and forever
    Through every season Your truth and Your grace never change
        Oh Lord, I do believe that the God
        That You've been everyday of history
        Is who You are this day
        This day, this day
        This day Your mercies are new
        This day Your promise is true
    This day my hope is in You, Lord
        This day, oh yea
    This day all Your mercies are new
    This day every promise is true
    Father, help me to believe

Give me faith I need to know You
And trust You
This day all Your mercies are new
This day your every promise is true
Father, help me to believe
Give me faith I need to know You
And trust You this day
I'm gonna trust you this day, yea
This day, yea
